SLUM MANNERS.

Senators Hill and Harris Have Warm Words.

Wherein New York is Compared With Tennessee.

WON'T BE BULLDOZED.

Harris Won't Be Browbeaten by Slum Methods.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—During the income tax debate yesterday Senator Allen of Nebraska repelled the idea covertly or openly advanced by the opponents of the income tax that the Populists had no regard for property.
He declared vehemently that congress was in the hands of the money power.
By the legislation forced by moneyed influences, frauds and dishonest fortunes had been built up in this country. For weeks a railroad magnate had sat in a committee room at the end of the capitol trying to shape important legislation. "If you want proof of that I will give it to you," he shouted dramatically.

"Name him," said Mr. Walsh.
"I will name him to a committee of the senate if you want it," said Mr.
Allen.

"You talk of relieving the burdens of the poor," interrupted Mr. Hill, "why did you vote against free sugar?"

"The poor cannot live entirely on sugar," said Mr. Allen. "Why talk of it?"

"Because it is one of the necessities of life," said Mr. Hill.

Mr. Allen then stated he had voted for a duty on sugar because Mr.
Harrison left a bankrupt treasury when he left the White house, and at the conclusion of his remarks Mr.
Jarvis, Senator Vance's successor, from North Carolina, made his maiden speech in support of the income tax.

It was 6 o'clock when Mr. Jarvis finished, and Mr. Hill, who desired to reply to some of the remarks, asked Mr. Harris, in charge of the bill, to yield to an adjournment, as the senate had been sitting eight hours at a temperature in the chamber of 85.

Mr. Harris said he regretted that he could not comply with the request.
The country, as well as the senate, had some rights as well as senators.

The country was entitled to know at the earliest possible moment what the fate of this bill was to be. The debate had been going on since April 3 and he regretted that he was unable to grant the request. Let senators proceed now—let them exhibit their learning and their rhetoric, he said, bitterly. "I will not hold a quorum here, as long as I can hold a quorum here," said he, "or as long as there is any means of obtaining a quorum. Let us stay here," he said, with a wave of his hand and a shake of his head.

"Not always, not all night, but for a reasonable time."

Mr. Hill called attention to the fact that this was the first time the privilege had been refused. The senator from Tennessee had kept a patient temper until he (Hill) submitted the request. It had been exercised against him because he saw fit to antagonize this pet scheme that was so odious to him and the state he represented.

Mr. Harris interrupted, to say that if progress had been made, he would have yielded to an adjournment.

"The senator says the time has been wasted," said Mr. Hill.

"It has," said Mr. Harris, gruffly, from his seat.

"Who is the judge?" said Mr. Hill.

"I say it has not been wasted. Yesterday $4,000 was fixed as the exemption in the bill. I argued yesterday that every $1,000 exempted made it more indefensible. Yesterday the Democratic supporters of the income tax stood ready to vote for a $1,000 exemption. To-day the finance committee brought in an amendment to reduce the exemption to $3,000. Was that time wasted? Yesterday I argued against a complete exemption of savings banks. To-day an amendment is brought in that exempts them. I think we are making very satisfactory progress. I think it cruel, unjust and unworthy of the senator from Tennessee that he should seek to crowd me to-night, when I desire to reply to arguments made to-day."

"I accept the responsibility most cheerfully," said Mr. Harris, in a disgusted tone.

"I will make the senator accept other responsibilities," said Mr. Hill, eyes flashing. The New York senator was evidently thoroughly aroused.

"Proceed," ejaculated Mr. Harris, without rising from his seat.

"I will not be ordered by you," said Mr. Hill, turning upon the senator from Tennessee fiercely. "I will have them at your plantation manners exhibited toward me."

"Neither do I care for an exhibition of the manners of the slums of New York," retorted Mr. Harris, hotly, rising to his feet.

"They are better than those of the plantations of Tennessee," said Mr.
Hill.

Mr. Harris made no reply and Mr.
Hill proceeded to call attention to the fact that he was in no way responsible for the delay on this bill. If anybody was responsible for the long delay on this bill, he said, it was the committee on rules and the Democratic majority which had refused to amend the rules so they could control legislation.

Mr. Hill was proceeding to discuss the question of changing the rules at length, when Mr. Harris, realizing that he could not force the New York senator against his will, maneuvered so a vote was taken upon an important verbal amendment, and this discussing the absence of a quorum, he moved an adjournment. In doing so he gave notice that to-day he should bring the senate to sit until the tariff bill was finally completed in the committee of the whole and reported to the senate. Then at 7:10 the senate adjourned.

MAY LOSE THE BRIDGE.

One Across the Missouri at Atchison Likely to Be Abandoned.

St. Joseph, Mo., June 23.—Railroad officials here are of the opinion that the bridge across the river at Atchison will have to be abandoned before the summer is over, and are making no effort to protect their rights of way.
All trains between Atchison and this city now use the Burlington tracks.
This can not last long, however, for the bridge will soon be in the middle of the river, as the land at this end will have been eaten away.

SUGAR A STICKING POINT.

House Democrats Arrayed Against the Senate Measure.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—No agreement has as yet been reached in the ways and means committee concerning the stand which the house is to take on the sugar schedule of the tariff bill. It is believed, however, that the struggle between the senate and the house on this schedule will be desperate, with the possibility of a long deadlock.

Minister Killed by Lightning.

ALBEO, Ill., June 23.—The worst storm in years visited this city yesterday and much damage was done. The Rev. Ferguson, residing at Sunbeam, nine miles south, and Frank Harvey, residing near Pomeroy, nine miles northwest, were killed by lightning.
A number of horses and other stock were killed.

General S. V. Benet Seriously Ill.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—General Stephen V. Benet, formerly chief of the ordnance bureau of the army, but now on the retired list, has been dangerously ill at his residence in this city from the effects of a paralytic stroke he suffered on Sunday.

To All Princes and Peoples.

ROME, June 23.—The pope's encyclical letter, a forecast of which has already been cable, was issued yesterday. It is much remarked that the letter is addressed to "all princes and peoples," instead of, as usual, to the archbishops and bishops.

Plague of Caterpillars.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Col., June 23.—Cripple Creek district is suffering from a caterpillar plague. At the bottom of abandoned prospect holes they lie two feet deep. The army is slowly making its way east.

The fourth annual convention of the Nebraska Epworth league is in session at Grand Island, about 300 delegates being present.

ment was awarded Lena Leise for $10,000 damages against John Meyer in a breach of promise case.

Four lodges of Arapahoe Indians were arrested on New Fort river, Fremont county, Wyo., charged with killing cattle and game. There is great excitement over the matter among the Shoshone reservation, and only wise action on the part of Indian Agent Ray will avert serious trouble.

James H. Smith, the United States consular agent at Mayence, Germany, in a report to the state department, gives some surprising figures relative to German investments. He says the people are laying up from $476,000,000 to $595,000,000 annually, one-half of which goes into securities. At least twenty-five per cent of the wealth of Germany is now invested in stocks and bonds.

The London Post, commenting on the decrease of emigration to the United States, thinks the decrease is less due to the exclusion laws than to the fact that the West has had its day, and that the tide of emigration is turned toward Africa. The omni-potence of capital in the United States has grown into an almost intolerable tyranny and has driven the farmer and workman to the wall.

STRIKE ECHOES.

The Minonk, Ill., miners have held a meeting and decided to resume work on Monday.

A strike on the Marquette, Mich., ranges seems imminent. Miners are uncommunicative, but notices are posted up all over the range for a secret meeting to be held.

Governor Pattison has received advice stating that the state troops had arrived at Walston and Adrian, and have possession of the entire plants, and have met with no opposition.

Liggett's spring and axle works in Allegheny, Pa., have been closed down on account of a strike of the employees against a 2 1/2 per cent reduction. About 200 men are affected.

The convention of miners of the Northern Illinois district, after two days' session, passed a resolution denouncing President McBride, and moved to hold out for last year's prices.

The Massillon coal operators have announced their intention of resump-ing work in the mines throughout the district with old men if possible, if not, with new. Sixty cents will be paid.

Notices have been posted by the United Colliers' company at Mount Vernon, Pa., mines Nos. 5 and 6, notififying the men that the colliers would start on Monday at the old rate of 50 cents per gross ton.

Miners of Brazil, Ind., refused to send delegates to the state convention at Terre Haute, claiming that they would not be governed by its decision.
By a majority vote of the miners it was decided also to ignore the action of the previous convention and uphold the action of their national and state officers.

NOT MUCH PROMISE.

The Business Outlook is Not Encouraging.

Promises for Better Things Don't Materialize.

SAYS DUN'S REPORT.

Tariff and Coal Strike Cause Unsettled Condition.

NEW YORK, June 23.—R. G. Dun & Co's weekly review of trade says:
"The week has been rich in promise, but poor in production. It was promised that exports of gold would decrease, but they have not. It was promised that the end of the coal strike would bring immediate recovery of industrial, but partial resumption of work disallows comparative scantiness of demand for productions.
Operations in wheat advanced the price 1 1/2c, though Western receipts were only 1,381,510 bushels, against 2,269,185 last year, and Atlantic exports only 555,931 bushels, against 2,502,098 last year. Corn advanced, but again receded with small exports and fairly large receipts.

"It was confidently expected that the settlement of tariff rates on textiles by the senate would improve the manufacture of textiles, but there is scarcely any evidence of such a result as yet, the large sales of cottons being distinctly traceable to more seasonable weather and large retail sales and to further concessions by sellers.
"The stock of unsold print cloths at Providence, Fall River and Boston is over a million pieces, but the accumulation continues.

"The orders for fall are limited and staples are irregular in prices. Wool is less active and rather weaker, with sales about equal to half a full consumption, 3,252,541 pounds, against 5,989,800 pounds for the same week last year, and 5,413,550 in 1892. For three weeks of June, sales have been 8,879,124 pounds, against 16,933,650 in 1892. There is much disappointment that the partial termination of the coal strike does not promptly enlarge the demand for iron and steel products, which is evidently too narrow as yet to support much increase of production.

"Failures during the week are 214 in the United States against 273 last year, and twenty-five in Canada, against fourteen last year."

Bank Clearings.

NEW YORK, June 23.—The following table, compiled by Bradstreet's, gives the clearing house returns for the week ending June 21, 1894, and the percentage of increase or decrease as compared with the corresponding week of 1893:

Cities	Clearings	Inc	Dec.
Kansas City	$8,819,400	15.0
Omaha	5,947,240	15.0
Denver	2,467,523	47.8
St. Louis	1,261,670	22.3
Lincoln	323,710	8.3
Topeka	209,533	29.6
Wichita	209,533	45.0

STRIKE DECLARED OFF.

Indiana Miners in State Convention Have No Order.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 23.—The miners' strike, so far as it relates to Indiana, was formally declared off last night at the called state convention of block and bituminous miners, the delegates representing 3,000 miners of the state. The vote to accept the Columbus scale of 60 cents for bituminous and 70 cents for block was carried by a vote of 28 to 14. Resolutions were adopted demanding the resignation of the officers who signed the Columbus agreement.

Took the Wrong Men In.

OKLAHOMA, Ok., June 23.—J. C.
Boon, William Lofford, H. L. Heath and William Ackerson, four United States deputy marshals, were held by Judge Mosley of Lexington on a charge of kidnaping. Under the generalship of one Mason, a Texas marshal, they arrested Jody Morris, Frank Scott and D. W. Scott on supposition they had been implicated in the Longview bank robbery. The parties arrested are reputable citizens.

Texas Populists.

WACO, Texas, June 23.—After an all night session the Populists nominated a complete state ticket, which is as follows: For governor, Judge D. Nugent; lieutenant governor, Martion Martin; attorney general, R. S.
Bell; treasurer, Henry E. McCullough; commissioner of general land office, S. C. Granbury; comptroller, W. E.
Moore, and Addison Clark state superintendent of public instruction.

Minneapolis "Times" Changes Hands.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 23.—The control of the Minneapolis Times was secured by the Evening Journal company, by which it will be conducted as an independent morning paper, with Colonel W. E. Haskell as editor-in-chief. The price paid for the plant, it is understood, was about $160,000.

General Kelly Not Guilty.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 23.—Kelly and Baker, leaders of the industrialists, were acquitted in the city court.
Kelly spoke last night to 4,000 people, comprised principally of workmen.
At a low estimate he received $600 from the meeting.

WICHITA FLOODED.

Stock Yards Under Water and Boats Floating Over the Public Park.

WICHITA, Kan., June 23.—The Arkansas river broke its banks here last night and a portion of the city is flooded. There is great alarm among the colored people near the levee and hundreds of them are fleeing. At midnight the water was higher than it has been since the great flood of 1877.

The body of a man with a valise floated under the Douglas avenue bridge a few minutes before 11 o'clock, and it is supposed that the rise caught him while he was crossing a stream.

Reports have come in from the country to the effect that many houses are under water between here and Hutchinson, and the loss of stock and grain is very disastrous. One farmer, six miles north of here, had thirty-two fat hogs swept away and six head of cattle. The floating debris that is passing through here indicate heavy losses to the farmers.
The stock yards in this city are completely under water and boats are floating over the favorite public park.

A BRIDGE BLOWN UP.

Dynamite Used to Destroy the Rock Island Structure at Tread Creek.

WICHITA, Kan., June 23.—A mob at Round Pond Creek, last night, blew up the bridge of the Rock Island with dynamite, just outside the corporate limits. The sheriff is powerless.
When the train passed the city, a short time before, without stopping according to the ordinance, the engineer was shot at twice. Bloodshed is imminent.

A Squaw Man Is Not a "Sooner."

WASHINGTON, June 23.—The case of George Johnson vs. Lee Wallis, in the general land office, was decided yesterday in favor of Johnson. It involved a claim one mile west of Kingfisher, valued at $10,000. Its legal importance is due to the fact that it establishes a precedent for over 100 cases in Oklahoma. Johnson was a squaw man who lived on the land a number of years before the country was opened for settlement, and on the day of opening he made the run for the land.
The decision takes the position that a squaw man is not a "sooner," which is the important feature of the decision as it relates to other cases.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—A delegation of the International Typographical union appeared before the house committee yesterday to advocate the government telegraph. William Mc-Cabe, of Washington, was spokesman.
Mr. McCabe urged government control of the telegraph lines on the ground that it would lead to the establishment of more newspapers, thereby giving employment to many printers now out of work.

General Bennett in St. Louis.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 23.—Information from Booneville, Mo., says that the flat boats containing nearly 250 men of the former Bennett command will be in St. Louis by Saturday night. "General" Sanders, who is in the city, is authority for the statement that Bennett, who disappeared so mysteriously a week ago Thursday, was in St. Louis awaiting there the arrival of his men.

Armor Plate Frauds.

WASHINGTON, June 23.—Charles S.
Craig of Edgewood Park, Pa., was before the congressional committee investigating armor plate frauds yesterday. Craig was associated with Sill in giving the main information of irregularities at the Carnegie works.
Craig's evidence was much like that recently given by Sill, and corroborative of it.

years in the penitentiary from Schuyler county, Missouri, for safe blowing, escaped from Sheriff Hale near this place by jumping through the car window while handcuffed, and has not been recaptured.

NEW YORK, June 23.—The Hon. John James Ingalls has been in town for several days. He has not pranced around the Fifth Avenue Hotel with a brass band and cymbals, neither have his glistening glasses and his nervous personality been seen in other famous up-
